

Participation Terms (as of November 2019)

(Trips and other events shall be governed by deviating participations terms, which will be sent with the respective tender.)

Subject Matter of These Participation Terms. The subject matter of these contractual terms shall be the regulation of rights and obligations in connection with the participation in the Mercedes-Benz Driving Events resp. Mercedes-Benz Offroad events and the associated services. The details can be found in the respective service specifications for the event selected by you in the current Mercedes-Benz Driving Events catalogue or on our website.

Organiser and Contracting Partner. The event organiser and contracting partner of the participant (or applicant) shall be Tufa GmbH, Gewerbestraße 10a, 78345 Moos (hereinafter "Tufa").

Contract Conclusion. Upon its registration, the applicant shall make a binding contractual statement vis-à-vis Tufa (binding bid) for the conclusion of a contract on the respective event booked incl. the travel services offered to that end, if applicable.

- The applicant may select the respective desired Mercedes-Benz Driving Events / Mercedes-Benz Offroad event and book it, inter alia, online via the "apply liable to payment" button. Before sending the application, it may amend and access the data at any time. However, the application may be submitted and transmitted only if the applicant accepts these contractual terms by clicking on the "Accept Participation Terms" button, thus submitting its binding bid. Immediately after the application has been sent, the applicant will receive an e-mail indicating that the application has been received (acknowledgement of receipt). This e-mail confirmation shall not yet constitute any acceptance of the contract. To this end, Tufa shall separately send a corresponding confirmation of participation to the applicant which shall constitute acceptance and thus contract conclusion at the same time.
- The application and the participation terms will be stored at Tufa and sent to the applicant in text form (by e-mail) after conclusion of the contract incl. the description of the services booked by the applicant. The contract may be concluded in the German and English language.

Application and Services. Application shall be exclusively effected using the Mercedes-Benz Offroad form, which will be sent upon request. The application shall be deemed binding once it has been confirmed by Mercedes-Benz Offroad (Tufa GmbH, editor licensed by Mercedes Benz AG and organiser of Mercedes-Benz Offroad) as the organiser in writing. The application shall be confirmed or rejected within two weeks after receipt of the application. The organiser shall be entitled to engage third parties to implement the course. The course price shall include the services described in the tender. They shall comprise: participation in the theoretical classes, catering and the practical driving exercises with an own or, where this was requested, with an offroad vehicle made available.

Amendments and Annulments. Amendments to the event locations, programme sequences and programme contents shall remain reserved if the amendments become necessary due to force majeure, illness of the service providers on site or due to the fact that the organiser is not provided with contractually agreed services of third parties without this being attributable to the organiser. In case of any amendment, the participant shall be offered equivalent services. If the event is fully booked, interested parties shall be notified immediately, but within two weeks after receipt of the application at the latest. Any participation fees already transferred shall be reimbursed immediately. If the minimum number of participants indicated by the organiser in the application form has not been reached, the organiser reserves the right to rescind from the contract up to ten days prior to the course start. In this case, any participation fees already transferred shall likewise be reimbursed immediately.

Vehicles. Participants may exclusively take part in the courses and events of Mercedes-Benz Offroad with an own or, where this was explicitly requested in the application, with an offroad vehicle made available by Mercedes-Benz Offroad. In this case, participation with an own offroad vehicle shall be exclusively possible with the G or X Class, GLS, GLE or GLC. In this respect, the terms specified shall apply. For vehicles provided, there shall be no entitlement to a specific vehicle. Vehicles provided shall be occupied by two individuals, except for individual coachings.

Prices. The prices indicated in the respective tender shall apply. The participation fee shall be due after receipt of the confirmation of participation and the invoice enclosed, at the latest, however, 14 days prior to the event start.

Changes in Bookings and Cancellations (for Individual Participants). Changes in bookings (also in case of illness) shall be possible only up to 14 days prior to the course start depending on the availability within the current calendar year. The fee for changes in bookings shall be EUR 45 incl. VAT per person. If a successful application is cancelled, all tendered offroad driving courses shall be governed by the terms below. For other events, these terms may vary and shall thus be separately specified in the tender / participation terms for the respective event (indications in % of the price per participant incl. VAT):

- annulments from 30 days prior to the training: 25%
- annulments from 14 days prior to the training: 50%
- annulments up to 8 days prior to the training: 90%

In case of any non-participation without prior cancellation or cancellation on the event date, 100% of the participation price shall be due. Any cancellation of the application must be made in writing, with the timeliness being governed by the time of receipt by mail at the organiser's. The customer may provide evidence that the organiser has not incurred any damage or expenditure by the cancellation or non-participation at all or that such damage or expenditure was significantly lower than the flat rates specified.

Changes in Bookings and Cancellations (for Groups). If a successful application for a group (five and more individuals) is cancelled, the terms below shall apply. For other events, these terms may vary and shall thus be separately specified in the tender / participation terms for the respective event (indications in % of the price per participant):

- annulments up to 90 days prior to the training: 20%
- annulments up to 60 days prior to the training: 50%
- annulments up to 30 days prior to the training: 80%
- annulments up to 8 days prior to the training: 90%

In case of any non-participation without prior cancellation, 95% of the participation price shall be due. Any cancellation of the application must be made in writing, with the timeliness being governed by the time of receipt by mail at the organiser's. The customer may provide evidence that the organiser has not incurred any damage or expenditure by the cancellation or non-participation at all or that such damage or expenditure was significantly lower than the flat rates specified.

Driving Licence and Participation. The participant shall assure that it holds a valid driving licence for the operation of passenger cars at the time of the event. The participant shall be obliged to allow inspection of its driving licence.

Prohibition of Alcohol and Behaviour. An absolute prohibition of alcohol (0.0 per mille) shall apply during the entire driving course. In case of any violations of this regulation, the organiser shall be entitled to exclude alcoholised participants from any further participation. In these cases, the participation price will not be reimbursed. This shall also apply to any behaviour endangering the participant or others. The organiser's instructors shall be

*Participation with an own M Class shall be possible only if the vehicle has an Off-Road Pro engineering package.

Participation Terms (as of November 2019)

(Trips and other events shall be governed by deviating participations terms, which will be sent with the respective tender.)

authorised to issue directives vis-à-vis the participant for the duration of the driving events.

Insurance. The participation fee shall include accident insurance for the duration of the offroad driving course. The benefits:

▪ upon death	EUR 260,000
▪ upon invalidity	EUR 512,000
▪ cure expenses up to	EUR 1,000
▪ recovery cost allowance up to	EUR 2,500

Vouchers. The following provisions shall be applicable to all vouchers of Mercedes-Benz Offroad. Vouchers shall apply only for the period specified upon issuance. Any extension of the period shall not be possible. The minimum order value shall be EUR 45,-. If the price of your order exceeds the credit of the voucher, you may reconcile the difference using the payment methods offered. Only one voucher may be redeemed per order. Vouchers may be exclusively redeemed via the online shop of Mercedes-Benz Offroad. Vouchers or remaining credits may not be disbursed. Any remaining credit shall remain unchanged for the validity period of the voucher. Lost or stolen vouchers shall not be reimbursed. In this case, Mercedes-Benz Offroad shall not assume any liability.

Further Scope of the Duty to Perform. The driving events shall be guided and autonomously conducted by instructors. The organiser shall solely provide their services within the framework of this contract, without being responsible for their proper conduct or making itself liable for breaches of duty by the instructors. The organiser shall solely be obliged to carefully select the instructors and to make sure that they will be insured against any liability damage caused outside the participating vehicles. The organiser shall take charge of the instructors' remuneration claim against the participant. Such claim shall be factored into the participation price. The ground to be driven on is suitable for being driven on with motor vehicles in offroad operation. Accordingly, the condition of the ground, for ex. floor unevenness, waterholes, branches, trees, etc., may cause damage resulting from the nature of an offroad ground.

Liability. If the organiser is required to pay for any damage on account of the statutory provisions in accordance with these provisions that has been caused by slight negligence, the organiser's liability shall be limited. Liability shall apply only in case of any violation of essential contractual obligations and shall be limited to the typical damage foreseeable at the time the contract is concluded.

Such limitation shall not apply to any violation of life, body and health. Regardless of any fault of the organiser, any liability of the organiser acc. to the Product Liability Act shall remain unaffected. The personal liability of the organiser's legal representatives, auxiliary agents and company employees for any damage caused by them by slight negligence shall be excluded.

The same shall apply to the owners or other beneficiaries of the event ground. No-fault liability for defects in the vehicle provided shall be excluded. Accompanying persons not registered as participants shall not be permitted to stay on the event ground; any liability shall not be assumed.

Liability for Vehicles Made Available. The offroad vehicles made available by Mercedes-Benz will have fully comprehensive insurance coverage with a deductible of € 1,000. The participant shall be obliged to pay such deductible to the organiser for any damage attributable to the participant or caused by the operational risk in the offroad vehicle made available.

If the organiser is released from the duty to perform as a result of gross negligence by the participant or if any damage is caused as a result of any fault of the participant or the operational risk of the vehicle that is not covered within the framework of the fully comprehensive insurance, the participant shall be liable for any damage caused by the participant or its accompanying person. If the participant takes part with its own or any vehicle not made available by Mercedes-Benz Offroad, it shall be liable for any damage resulting from such use within the framework of the statutory provisions.

The participant shall be obliged to take out fully comprehensive insurance for any potential damage to its vehicle, also only for the duration of the event, as the case may be.

Right of Revocation. You make revoke your contractual statement within 14 days in text form (for ex. letter, fax, e-mail) without giving reasons. The revocation period shall start upon receipt of this policy in text form, but not prior to receipt of the goods at the recipient's (in case of recurring deliveries of the same goods not prior to receipt of the first partial delivery) and not before our information obligations in acc. with Article 246 Section 2 in conjunction with Section 1 Para. 1 and 2 EGBGB (Introductory Act to the German Civil Code) as well as our duties under Section 312e Para. 1 Sentence 1 BGB (German Civil Code) in conjunction with Article 246 Section 3 EGBGB have been fulfilled.

The revocation period shall be deemed observed by timely sending the revocation notice or dispatching the item. The revocation notice is to be addressed to:

Tufa GmbH
Mercedes-Benz Driving Events / Mercedes-Benz Offroad
Gewerbstraße 10a
D-78345 Moos
E-mail: info@mb-offroad.com
Telefax: +49-7732-970146
Phone: +49-7732-970147

Consequences of Revocation. In case of any effective revocation, the services received by either party must be given back and any benefits derived therefrom, if applicable (e.g. interest) must be returned. If you cannot return the received service to us in whole or in part or only in a deteriorated condition, you must pay compensation to us to that extent, as the case may be. Any obligations to reimburse payments must be fulfilled within 30 days. The time limit for you shall start upon dispatch of your revocation notice or of the item; the time limit for us shall start upon its receipt. Special notes: your right of revocation for a service shall expire prematurely if your contracting partner has started executing the service with your explicit consent before the end of the revocation period of if you have arranged for such service yourself.

Data Protection. This data protection notice provides you with information as to how your personal data will be processed in connection with the application for and participation in our events, as well as about the rights due to you.

Who is responsible for ensuring data protection?

Tufa GmbH
Mercedes-Benz Driving Events / Mercedes-Benz Offroad
Data Protection Officer Katharina Breuninger
Gewerbstraße 10a
D-78345 Moos
E-mail: datenschutz@tufa.de / datenschutz@mb-offroad.com
Telefax: +49-7732-970146
Phone: +49-7732-970147

What kind of data will be processed by us? Tufa shall only process personal data that we require in connection with the event and the related application. This shall include first name and surname, date of birth, address, phone number and e-mail

Participation Terms (as of November 2019)

(Trips and other events shall be governed by deviating participations terms, which will be sent with the respective tender.)

address (participant and application data) and your invoice address as well as advertising and distribution data (e.g. to promote events which might be of interest to you).

For what purposes will we process your data (purpose of processing) and on what legal basis?

On account of your consent to data processing (Art. 6 Para. 1 Letter a GDPR): if and to the extent that you have given any consent to the processing of personal data, the respective consent shall be the legal basis for the method of processing indicated there. This shall apply, for ex., to any receipt of electronic customer information (advertising and distribution data). You may revoke any consents with effect for the future at any time.

To meet contractual obligations (Art. 6 Para. 1 Letter b GDPR): your data shall be processed to initiate or implement our event contracts concluded with you, i.e., for example, to provide our services (implementation of the event and booking of trips).

On account of legal requirements (Art. 6 Para. 1 Letter c GDPR): Tufa is subject to different legal obligations entailing data processing. This includes, for ex., tax laws, especially within the framework of statutory accounting. Accordingly, we are obliged by law (Fiscal Code of Germany - AO) to store invoices and settlement data for ten years.

To whom will we disclose the data? Any disclosure of your data by Tufa within the company will be effected only to any Tufa departments that require such data to meet the contractual and legal obligations or to perform their respective duties (e.g. customer account managers, distribution and marketing). In addition, external bodies will be provided with your data without exception only they have been contractually obliged by us to meet their obligations as processors (Art. 28 GDPR) and warrant that they will process your data according to our directives.

This includes, for ex., payment service providers and service providers in the field of travel and logistics. Moreover, we will disclose data only to individuals who have given us their consent to data processing.

Will we transmit data to third countries? Your data will be processed only within the European Union and in countries within the European Economic Area (EEA). Otherwise, you will always be separately notified thereof by Tufa in advance, including of the right that you may separately object to any such data transfer at any time.

How long will we store your data? Tufa will store your personal data only as long as this will be necessary to render the related services covered by the contract.

In addition to the duration of the actual event, this also includes any data processing within the framework of the initiation and implementation of the related contracts, as well as any data processing for the purpose of subsequent contacting and reconciliation with previous events, but no longer than five years after the last communication following the completed event. In addition, Tufa is subject to different retention and documentation obligations resulting, inter alia, from the Commercial Code and from regulations under tax law (Fiscal Code of Germany - AO). The time limits specified there for retention resp. documentation are five to ten years. Finally, the storage period is also governed by the statutory limitation periods, which may be, for ex. according to the Civil Code, two years.

Is there any obligation to provide personal data? Within the framework of our business relationship, you must only provide any personal data that is required to establish, implement and terminate the event. Otherwise, it will not be possible, however, to conclude the contract and to take part in the events. The provision of personal data beyond that is not prescribed by law.

Do we make use of automated individual decision-making?

To establish and implement the business relationship, we do basically not use automated decision-making acc. to Art. 22 GDPR. If we implement such procedures on a case-by-case basis, we will separately inform you thereof.

To what extent will we use your data for profiling? Tufa does not make use of so-called "profiling" acc. to Art. 4 No. 4 GDPR within the framework of the application and the registration process. Nevertheless, we create a user profile based on the participant data within the framework of our newsletter service. This includes processing of the postcode, of the nature of the training hitherto booked (e.g. targeted addressing of participants) and of the age.

What rights to you have? You have the right to request confirmation at any time as to whether we process personal data, as well as the right to be provided with information about such personal data. In addition, you are entitled to claim correct, deletion and restriction of data processing, and you have the right to lodge an objection against any processing of personal data at any time or to revoke your consent to data processing at any time or to demand data transmission. Moreover, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority in case of any data breaches.

Case-by-Case Right of Objection. You have the right to lodge an objection at any time against any processing of personal data related to you that is effected based on Art. 6 Para. 1 Letter f GDPR (data processing based on the weighing of interests) for reasons resulting from your specific situation. This shall also apply to any profiling having regard to this provision within the meaning of Art. 4 No. 4 GDPR. If you lodge any objection, your personal data will no longer be processed, unless Tufa produces evidence of any compelling legitimate grounds for such processing that outweigh your interests, rights and freedoms or such processing serves to assert, exercise or defend legal claims.

Right of Objection Against Processing of Data for Direct Advertising Purposes. Tufa may process your data within the framework of the statutory provisions, also for direct advertising. You have the right to lodge an objection against any processing of personal data related to you for the purpose of such advertising at any time, without this resulting in any costs other than the transmission costs acc. to the basic rates. This shall also apply to any profiling to the extent it is associated with such direct advertising. If you object to any processing for direct advertising purposes, we will no longer process your personal data for such purposes. The objection may be lodged in each case without observing any formal requirement. The contact details can be found above.

Final Provisions. All agreements must be laid down in writing. This shall also apply to side agreements and warranties as well as to subsequent contractual amendments. If any provision of this contract is ineffective or becomes unenforceable, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this contract. The contracting partners shall agree in good faith on a regulation which shall be equivalent to or come closest to the ineffective provision within the framework of what is reasonable. The place of jurisdiction for claims from this contract shall be Konstanz if the participant does not have a place of general jurisdiction in Germany or if the participant, on whom the claims is to be made, has relocated its place of residence or habitual abode away from Germany following the conclusion of the contract or if the participant's place of residence or habitual abode is not known at the time of institution of legal proceedings. ###

Participation Terms (as of November 2019)

(Trips and other events shall be governed by deviating participations terms, which will be sent with the respective tender.)