Mercedes-Benz

Getting here.

Signs

Follow the signs for 'NeckarPark'. The Mercedes-Benz Museum is just a few metres from the Mercedes-Benz Arena.

Arriving by car

From Karlsruhe: Follow the A8 to the junction for Stuttgart and take the exit for Vaihingen. Take the A831, followed by the B14 towards 'Stuttgart-Zentrum' and then the B10/B14. Follow the signs for 'NeckarPark'.

From Ulm: Follow the A8 until the exit for Esslingen-Zentrum. Join the B313 and then take the B10 towards Stuttgart. Follow the signs for 'NeckarPark'.

From Heilbronn: Follow the A81 until the exit for Zuffenhausen, then take the B10 towards 'Stuttgart-Zentrum' and follow the signs for 'NeckarPark' in the direction of Stuttgart-Bad Cannstatt/Esslingen.

Classic vehicles

We are always delighted when visitors arrive in classic cars, whatever the brand. You are welcome to park on the hill in front of the museum, provided no events are taking place.

(If you would like to know whether the hill will be free on the day of your visit, you can find out from the Mercedes-Benz Classic Contact Center: +49 (0)711-1730 000 or classic@mercedes-benz.com)

Parking

Visitors can park in the museum car park (maximum clearance: 1.90 metres) and in the P4 car park. Parking costs €2 per hour for the first three hours and then €2.50 per hour from the fourth hour. Designated parking spaces are available in the museum car park for families and disabled visitors. You will find these on the ground floor near the ticket machines and the glass door. Vehicles for disabled visitors can be parked in the coach turnaround in front of the museum if they are over 2.00 metres tall.

Please note that emissions stickers are mandatory and there is a diesel traffic ban in the Stuttgart area. Please find out more before your visit at stuttgart.de

Electric charging points

Cars: There are nine free Type 2 electric charging points in the museum car park. You can pay a deposit to borrow a suitable charging cable from the information point in the atrium (Level 1).
E-bikes: There are also nine free lockers with electric charging points available.

Events

Home football matches for VfB Stuttgart and major events may restrict vehicle access to the Mercedes-Benz Museum. In these cases, we recommend that you use public transport.

Arriving by train

From Stuttgart central station, take S-Bahn line S1 heading towards Kirchheim (Teck) and get off at the NeckarPark stop. When you alight, follow the signs for the museum. Further information is available at vvs.de

Arriving by bus

Bus number 56 runs from Bad Cannstatt station to the 'Mercedes-Benz Welt' stop. You can reach Bad Cannstatt station on the S-Bahn lines S1, S2 and S3 and on regional and Regional-Express trains.

Arriving by bicycle

The Neckartalradweg cycle path runs right past the museum. Leave the path at the mooring point for 'Mercedes-Benz Welt/NeckarPark' and follow the signs for 'Mercedes-Benz Museum/NeckarPark'. Further information is available at neckarradweg.de and neckartalradweg-bw.de

Arriving by boat

'Mercedes-Benz Welt/NeckarPark' mooring point (only in summer). Further information is available at neckar-kaeptn.de

Sindelfingen factory visit

If you are interested in visiting the Sindelfingen factory, please contact Werkbesichtigungen.W050@mercedes-benz.com

Audio guide

Visitors who would like to explore the museum without a tour guide can borrow electronic audio guides in eight languages for free. There is a special children's guide in two languages for younger visitors.

Fascinating design (Campus)

The do-it-yourself exhibition is an exciting design experience for families. Children and young people can try their hand at being designers themselves: they can sketch, model and design their own car of the future. Find out more about the free activities at mercedes-benz.com/kinder

Information for groups.

Individual service and tailor-made options

Arrange your visit exactly as you want it. Combine your museum visit with an expert tour, a pit stop in the restaurant and a personal memento from the museum shop. The team in the Mercedes-Benz Classic Contact Center will be happy to help you plan your visit.

Price savings

Groups of ten or more paying visitors benefit from a reduced entry price. There is also a further discount if you purchase 50 tickets or more. Information about reductions is available from the Mercedes-Benz Classic Contact Center or at the ticket desk in the Mercedes-Benz Museum.

Free coach parking

There are several free coach parking spaces on the Mercedes-Benz Museum site (see map). Please follow the signs at the site. Groups can be dropped off at the museum using the coach turnaround.

Shorter waiting times when signing in

Groups also have priority for signing in – a separate counter for registered groups means a shorter wait at the ticket desk.

Service for coach drivers and tour guides

Drivers and tour guides with registered groups can enjoy free entry on the day of the visit. Drivers also receive a free snack in the catering facilities. Vouchers for entry and food are available at the ticket desk in the entrance area. When registering at the desk in the Mercedes-Benz Museum, please show your coach driver's licence and the letter confirming your group visit.
