

As the Mercedes-Benz Museum we are bound to collect your personal data, to curtail COVID-19 within the scope to track possible contact persons in case of contamination, due to the Corona-Regulation of Baden-Wuerttemberg. The legislative basis to collect your personal data for the aforementioned reason is: Art. 6 Abs. 1 lit. C) DSGVO.

We assure you to keep your personal data strictly confidential and we will not make your data accessible to unauthorized third persons. We will not transfer your data into any electronic system. We will keep the list inaccessible to unauthorized third persons and we assure you the destruction of your personal data after 4 weeks, accordingly to privacy and data protection compliance.

Please fill in the following declaration of consent legibly.

Declaration of consent to appropriation of personal data

Full name: _____

Further visitors: _____

address: street _____

address: city, country _____

phone: _____

Hereby I declare my consent to the aforementioned collection of my personal data within the scope of tracking contact persons in case of contamination and regulation of COVID 19, due to the Corona-Regulation of Baden-Wuerttemberg. My personal data will only be collected by employees of the Mercedes-Benz Museum, which are obliged to confidentiality. My data will be inaccessible to unauthorized third persons and will be destroyed after 4 weeks of your museum visit.

I confirm, that I was not in an international risk area, an area of widespread occurrence of COVID-virus variants or an area of high incidence for the last 14 days.

Stuttgart, Date: _____ Guest Signature: _____

Time: _____